DFF Job Description

First Presbyterian Church of Greer is located in the Upstate of South Carolina, the largest metropolitan area in the region. Founded in 1841, our church is located in the heart of downtown Greer, a thriving and revitalized town of about 31,000 situated in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, between the larger cities of Greenville and Spartanburg, just north of the Interstate 85 corridor. . Currently, our congregation includes about 550 members of all ages. Led by a dedicated, warm, and collaborative staff, we joyfully respond to God's call to worship together, grow in faith, care for one another, and engage in missions both local and global.
