MUSINGS:

What I love so much about this passage is the multiple names and images that we see for Jesus. Just in these few verses, Jesus is called "Lamb of God", "Chosen One", and "Rabbi (Teacher)".

These multiple images of Jesus each teach us something new about our Savior. For me, seeing Jesus as a Teacher reminds me that I always have something new to learn. And what better time to start learning something new than at the beginning of a new year?

CONSIDER:

- What names for Jesus speak to you?
- What does calling Jesus "the Chosen One" mean?
- How would it change your perception to call Jesus as "Lamb of God"?

ACTIVITY:

Take out a piece of paper and write down all the names that you can think of for Jesus. When you run out, start writing attributes of Jesus, such as Friend, Helper, Justice-Seeker, etc.

Once you have written all that you can, thank God for a faith that cannot be expressed in one name.
